

Location: Bratislava
Contract Value: 22.89 mil. EUR
Completion: 03/2001

A Slovak telecom office building is an adaptation of an unfinished outpatient clinic in Bratislava. The building was extended and a new storey was added to fulfil new user requirements.

It was a design and build project, where complex project documentation, all required legal permissions and construction including fit out and external works were delivered by Hornex.